SPANISH PRINCES JOIN BOY SCOUTS

Being princes does not restrain these youngsters from joining enthusiastically in the boy scout movement. They joined the command at Santander, one of the large cities of Spain, at the instance of their father, the king, who has been a firm advocate of preparedness. The lad at the right is deaf and dumb.

Woman's club last evening at the lecture room of the public library on the subject of the Constitution. His talk showed great insight into the intricacies of that document. He dwelt especially upon its origin and the difficulties encountered in drafting it. Altogether the address was an intellectual treat and the only thing to be deplored was the small attendance.

AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH.
An enjoyable time is anticipated at the circus to be given by the Baptist Woman's union this evening in the gymnasium of the church. Election returns will be announced during the evening and there will be a variety of circus attractions to which the admission will be two pence. The social is for the members of the church and their friends and preparations are being made to entertain a large company.

STUDY MEETING.
The art committee of the Hammond Woman's club held a very interesting study meeting yesterday afternoon in the lecture room of the public library. The topic for the afternoon was "The Re-discovery of Greek Art" and papers were read by Mrs. George Roberts, Miss Maude Smith and Mrs. J. A. Anderson.
